[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LEXINGTON, VA., February 25.—The warm weather of this winter has made warm weather of this winter has made it possible to commence baseball practice much earlier than usual, and for the past three weeks the Washington and Lee baseball squad has been hard at work. Already the large number of applicants has been considerably 10-duced, so that in a very short time the process of rounding the team into shape will begin.

There appears to be better material this year than ever before, which is fortunate, as there are many gaps to fill. Not a man who played in the in-fortunate, as there are many gaps to fill. Not a man who played in the infield last year has returned to college, but Anthony, catcher, and Hood, Clark and Waddill, outfielders, will furnish the basis of the team. Gwathiney and Pasedes, old men, will do the bulk of the pitching, but will have the assistance of several promising new men. In this line, George, the star twirler of last season's team, will be greatly missed.

Sectenwald comes with quite a reputation as a catcher, and, as is reported, was greatly sought by Princeton and Pennsylvania. Other men who will probably make good in the infield are Webster, Speed and Gannon. The latter played last year with Rockhill College and is a fine batter.
